Servanthood As Worship: The Privilege of Life by Nate Palmer (Men and Women)

Led by Ryan Muchow

Cost: $10

Browse a Christian book website or bookstore and notice all there is for leaders and would-be leaders. We are inundated with studies of leaders, keys to leadership, and tips on becoming a leader. But how many books inspire us simply to serve one another? How many books involving servanthood are not tied to leadership and basically about leadership? The appeal of leadership has hijacked the biblical call to servanthood. As a result, we major on a role that will only ever be held by a few, and we largely ignore a role that ought to be held by every Christian. What ever happened to servanthood? Servanthood as Worship offers Christians a biblical understanding of their calling to serve in the local church, motivated by the grace that is ours in the gospel. (Room 128)

Christians Get Depressed Too by David Murray

(Men and Women)

Led by Pastor Casey

Cost:$ 10

Have you ever experienced depression?

Have you ever wanted to help those who do?

Do you desire to better understand a condition that 1 out of every 10 Americans has or will experience?

Join Pastor Casey through a 6-week study of David Murray's book, Christians Get Depressed Too. Many Christians mistakenly believe that true Christians don't get depressed, and this misconception heaps additional pain and guilt onto Christians who are suffering from mental and emotional distress. Author David P. Murray comes to the defense of depressed Christians, asserting that Christians do get depressed! He explains why and how Christians should study depression, what depression is, and the approaches, caregivers, pastors, and churches can take to help those who are suffering from it. (Conference Room)
